

OLD DOMINION
UNIVERSITY

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND LETTERS

Colloquium Series

presented by

Arts, Popular Culture, and Interfaith Understanding

Fri NOV. 22, 2013 / 3:00 - 5:00pm / BAL 9024

This colloquium is focused on how different forms of art as popular culture contribute to interfaith understanding. It will discuss films such as HABIBI and other forms of pop culture and how they play into our understanding of different faiths. This colloquium will feature perspectives of artists, members of faith organizations, and scholars in the field of religious studies.

Susan Youssef

Director of the film
Habibi

Dr. Scott Girdner

Assistant Professor,
Philosophy and Religious
Studies at Old Dominion
University

Rabbi Michael Panitz

Rabbi at Temple Israel in Norfolk, VA.

<https://www.facebook.com/habibiatodu>

<https://www.facebook.com/pages/Humanities-Institute-at-Old-Dominion-University/351148051386>

Please contact Stacey Parks (sparks@odu.edu) in BAL 3041 for more information.