

SALE! SALE! SALE!

Give the gift of music this holiday season by taking advantage of great specials from Old Dominion University's Community Music Division! But hurry, you have to be registered by December 11 to get these special rates!

To register, call the CMD office- 683-4075

-Music Appreciation Classes-

Meet the Musician- Meet the Musician provides an in depth study of three of the most famous musicians/composers of all time- Beethoven, Mozart and Bach. Three class periods are dedicated to each and information includes their birth, death, personal lives, and contributions to music which gives them the legend status they have today.

Meeting Time: Friday, 2:00 – 3:00 PM
Dates: February 21 – April 25

Women in Music- The Feminist Movement didn't exclude the world of music. Learn how women throughout history have worked to make their mark known in a world of mostly male composers.

Meeting Time: Monday, 6:00 – 7:00 PM
Dates: February 17 – April 21

Age of Disco- Take a trip back to the 70's and learn what inspired the disco era. Learn what elements make up true disco songs as well as variations on the genre. Famous acts and club history is also covered as well as learning popular disco dancing.

Meeting Time: Wednesday, 7:00 – 8:00 PM
Dates: March 12 – June 4 (12 week course!)

Music in Film- Music in film explores famous movie scores and their impact in the musical world as well as society. Famous movie composers are also covered.

Meeting Time: Monday, 5:00 – 6:00 PM
Dates: February 17 – April 21

Music History- An overview of music development from the beginning of time through present day. Major musical eras are covered as are famous composers and musicians.

Meeting Time: Wednesday, 2:00 – 3:00 PM
Dates: February 17 – April 21

Getting Gospel- For over 2000 years, gospel music has been a part of world culture. Getting Gospel traces the roots of the genre and explores how it has changed throughout the years. Popular singers and songs throughout the different ages of gospel are explored.

Meeting Time: Friday, 7:30 – 8:30 PM
Dates: February 21 – April 25

Just ~~$150~~ $75 per class!

-Theory & Vocal Classes-

Voice Class I- Voice Class I is an introduction to singing. Learn deep breathing and vocal exercises which teach healthy singing. You will learn what range best fits your voice. Song selection is elementary and is designed to build a foundation for more advanced songs later on.

Meeting Time: Monday, 7:00 – 8:00 PM
Dates: February 17 – April 21

Music Theory I- College level, continuation of 'basics.' Includes review of scales, triads, intervals, key signatures and includes rhythms and analysis.

Meeting Time: Wednesday, 3:00 – 4:00 PM
Dates: February 19 – April 23

Just ~~$150~~ $100 per class!

757.683.4075 – oducmd@odu.edu – <http://al.odu.edu/cmd>

The Community Music Division reserves the right to cancel classes at any time. Each class must have a minimum of five (5) students enrolled for the class to be held. In the event a class is canceled due to low enrollment, the CMD will issue full refunds to students. Tuition fees are non-refundable should the student no longer wish to take a class; however, the CMD, at our sole discretion, will allow the tuition fee to be applied towards other lessons/classes we offer, provided the student notifies the CMD office in writing by the second week of class. Written requests should be sent to oducmd@odu.edu. This offer is subject to change and may be canceled at any time. Student must complete a registration form and submit payment to the CMD office by 3 PM on Wednesday December 11, 2013 to take advantage of these special rates.