

Spring 2013

Global Certificate Program

Superstitions

Around The World

Wednesday, March 27, 2013

10.00 AM to 12.00 PM

Cape Charles, Webb Center

Superstitions are beliefs in the importance of particular objects, events, or circumstances. It is important to be aware of common superstitions in various cultures, as they often apply to luck, health, and prosperity . During this session, we will look closely into common superstitions in Mexico, South Korea, and Turkey.

The Global Certificate Program is a certificate program for faculty, staff and graduate assistants to develop and/or enhance skills for working with and learning from international students and researchers at Old Dominion University.
