*Created Equal:
A Community Conversation about
Freedom and Equality in America*

Saturday, February 22, 2014

2:00-4:30pm

Lecture Hall 244

a reception with light refreshments to follow

This event will feature excerpts from “The Loving Story,” a documentary film set in Virginia against a back-drop of anti-miscegenation sentiment that retells the story of Richard and Mildred Loving, a bi-racial couple.

A panel discussion will be moderated by Barbara Hamm Lee, Executive Producer and Host of “Another View.”

Supported by the National Endowment of the Humanities’ initiative “Created Equal: America’s Civil Rights Struggle, commemorating the 150th Anniversary of the Emancipation Proclamation
