

Do You Know A Diversity Champion?

Old Dominion University recognizes the inherent value of equity and diversity in the classroom, workplace, and community and wants to celebrate individual Champions of Diversity.

Designed to honor and celebrate individuals who encourage and advance the principles of equity and diversity, to promote the positive impact diversity has upon our university community, the Office of Institutional Equity and Diversity invites members of the University community to nominate individuals for this honor from the following categories: Faculty, Administrator, Staff, Student, and Hampton Roads residents.

Please submit nominations by the February 28, 2014. Nomination forms are available on the website at :

<http://www.odu.edu/equity/diversity-award>

For more information please call 683-3141.

