Mardi Gras@ Club Perry

Tuesday, March 4th

6-8pm in the Learning Commons

In the fall, a parade of Zombies stalked Perry Library. To celebrate spring—and a carnival of learning resources--ODU faculty, staff, and students are invited to Mardi Gras@Club Perry on Tuesday, March 4 from 6-8 pm.

Stations decorated as Mardi Gras floats will represent the university's three libraries, Student Success Center, Classroom Central, Student Government Association, and The Starving Artists. A mini Mardi Gras exhibit will feature books, music, and DVDs. And a LibGuide on Mardi Gras will be provided on the library website.

There will be prizes, games, music and face painting. Lots of prizes will be awarded. . .

The first two to get thru all of the stations will receive money on their Monarch Plus accounts--sponsored by the Library.

A "shoebox float" contest winner will receive $15 in Monarch Plus.

A King and Queen will be crowned for the male and female with the most beads. They will receive $50 into their Monarch Plus accounts sponsored by the Student Success Center.

Student Government Association will host a Spinning Prize Wheel with donations from the University Bookstore.

Find the hidden baby in the King Cake to win a spin at the prize wheel.
