

The Victorians Built Magnificent Drains:

Waste, Leakage and the

CLOUD

A PRESENTATION BY TUNG-HUI HU

This presentation examines the ideologies of privacy and 'digital hygiene' that has constructed the modern user over the last 50 years.

Tung-Hui Hu teaches at the University of Michigan, where he is assistant professor of English and co-organizer of the Digital Environments Cluster.

March 4, 2014

12:30-1:30pm

Burgess Room: BAL 9024