

DO YOU KNOW AN EXCEPTIONAL PROFESSOR?

Nominate them for the Kate Broderick Faculty Award for Excellence in Promoting Educational Accessibility

Faculty member meets one or more of the following requirements:

- Provides differentiation in curriculum and instruction supportive of multiple ways of learning and learning styles
- Provides cognitive and physical support to all students
- Creates a classroom as well as extra-curricular environment(s) designed in consideration of students with accessibility needs and their full participation and engagement
- Nurturing and welcoming to all students
- Openly addresses (in a positive and supportive manner) the needs of students with unique abilities
- Demonstrated commitment to the concept that all people, regardless of the nature or degree of an individual's accommodation needs, have the right and obligation to become full and contributing members of their academic communities
- Contributions above and beyond job requirements or achievements not likely to be recognized by other organizations
- An award nominee need not be a person with a disability

How to Nominate:

In 500 words or less tell us how you believe the professor meets one or more of these requirements

Submit To:

The Office of Educational Accessibility
oea@odu.edu

Deadline:

5:00pm Friday February 26th, 2016

The recipient of the award will receive a $500 professional development grant and an original piece of glass art that will symbolize the unique beauty, gifts and abilities of all students at ODU.