

F. Ludwig Diehn Concert Series 2015-16

Penelope Crawford and Martha Guth

In conjunction with the 29th Annual Harold Protsman Classical Period Piano Competition

MARCH 19, 2:30 P.M.

Final Judging by Penelope Crawford

MARCH 20, 3 P.M.

Free Master Class by Penelope Crawford

MARCH 21, 8 P.M.

CONCERT

MARCH 22, 12:30 P.M.

Free Master Class by Martha Guth

Chandler Recital Hall,
Diehn Center for the Performing Arts

OLD DOMINION
UNIVERSITY

IDEA FUSION

Internationally acclaimed as one of America's master performers on historical keyboard instruments, Penelope Crawford has appeared as a soloist with modern and period instrument orchestras, and as a recitalist and chamber musician on major North American concert series.

Martha Guth was the first place winner of many prestigious international competitions including the 2007 Wigmore Hall International Song Competition in London. She has sung under the batons of world-renowned conductors such as maestros Seiji Ozawa, Helmut Rilling, Robert Spano and Richard Bradshaw.

TICKETS: $10 STUDENTS, $15 GENERAL
AT ODUARTSTIX.COM AND (757) 683-5305.