Faculty Summer Exchange

The University of Kitakyushu has offered ODU the opportunity to send one faculty member to teach a brief American society/American culture related course to their students this summer.

Classes will be conducted for one week, August 17 - August 21, 2020

- The ODU faculty member will teach 15 classes for a total of 90 minutes each (3 classes per day for 5 days).
- The rate of compensation is 11,700 yen per class.
- Housing, teaching stipend, and office supplies/course materials will be provided by the University of Kitakyushu.
- Round trip airfare, visa application fees, passport fees and international health insurance will be provided by the Office of International Programs.
- Miscellaneous costs (bus/train tickets, meals, etc.) outside of the above, will be the responsibility of the faculty member.

Program is open to full-time faculty members from Humanities, Social Sciences and Liberal Arts.

Please email the following information along with a copy of your CV to Sharon Pitney in the Office of International Programs at oiip@odu.edu by the application deadline.

Please be sure to write "2020 UKK Application" in your subject line.

- 1. Describe your reasons for wanting to participate in the UKK summer exchange. (Attach, as appropriate, materials that you would include in an intensive, short course on American society and culture.*
- 2. Describe the anticipated benefits to your professional, research, and classroom teaching or service responsibilities to ODU.*
- 3. Summarize any previous academic interest and/or experience in Japan or in East Asia.*

APPLICATIONS ARE DUE BY 5PM ON MARCH 23, 2020
