TALES FROM A WATERY GRAVE: REMEMBERING USS CUMBERLAND

Laura Orr is the Director of Education at the Hampton Roads Naval Museum in Norfolk, Virginia. Prior to that, she worked at Fort Monroe's Casemate Museum; at Stratford Hall, a historic home; and at Gettysburg National Military Park. Laura received her Bachelor's degree in American Studies from Penn State University and her Master's in History and Museum Studies from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. Laura has appeared on several World War II documentaries on the Smithsonian Channel and Netflix. Her book about World War II dive bomber pilot CAPT Jack "Dusty" Kleiss, a member of USS Enterprise's Scouting Squadron 6, was published in 2017. The book is entitled Never Call Me a Hero, and Dusty was the only pilot involved in the Battle of Midway to score three hits on Japanese carriers.
