Professional development to bridge graduate school and career success

Career Exploration: Faculty Careers Outside the Tenure Track

Did you know that there are faculty opportunities outside the tenure track?

Have you considered a teaching-focused faculty career path?

Enjoy research or clinical practice and want to include these in your faculty career?

- A panel of faculty will discuss different types of non-tenure track faculty paths and answer questions about their career paths.

Panelists:

- Ginger Watson Papelis, Research Professor, Virginia Modeling Analysis and Simulation Center
- Christine Sump, Clinical Assistant Professor, School of Nursing
- Tatyana Lobova, Master Lecturer, Department of Biology
- Ron Carlee, Clinical Assistant Professor, School of Public Service

Monday, April 8, 2024
