

Fall 2013 Leadership Lecture Series

The Leadership Lecture Series is an experience like none other where student leaders can come and learn how to improve their skills as a leader.

There will be six sessions held on Wednesdays from 12pm to 1pm throughout the Fall 2013 Semester. If you attend three or more of the sessions, you will be rewarded with a Leadership Certificate and Medal!! knowledge as a leader!!!

For more information visit the Office of Leadership and Student Involvement's webpage or stop by the Office located in 1071 Webb Center.

Session 1: DiSCovering Leadership

Wednesday, September 18
12:00pm—1:00pm
Cape Charles Rooms, Webb Center

Do you know what your "leadership style" is? If not, come and find out! This session will have the participants take a personal leadership inventory, called the DiSC. We will then explore the good, the bad, and the ugly of each of the four styles and how leaders can best work with each type of leadership style. You are sure to have some "ah ha" moments in this interactive session!

Register Here

Session 4: Authentic Leadership for Change

Wednesday, October 30
12:00pm-1:00pm
Cape Charles Room, Webb Center
Donald Davis, Ph.D, Professor,
Department of Psychology

Creating successful change requires authentic leadership. Factors that strengthen authentic leadership will be discussed, and students will be taught some simple methods they can use to strengthen their own leadership effectiveness.

Register Here

Session 5: ODU Social Entrepreneurship: Shaping a Better World Today

Wednesday, November 13
12:00pm-1:00pm
Cape Charles Room, Webb Center
Alicia Phillips, Associate
Director for Intercultural Initiatives

This session explores concepts of social entrepreneurship and entrepreneurship as a means to empowering individuals to realize their potential to make meaningful contributions to society. We will discuss how personal experiences, passions and strengths can be used as guides to success, well-being and lasting fulfillment.

Register Here

Session 2: This I Believe: Self Awareness as a Path to Leadership

Date: Wednesday, October 2
Time: 12:00pm—1:00pm
Room: Cape Charles Room, Webb Center
Presenter: Vamsi Manne, Coordinator for Leadership Programs

This interactive session offers participants an opportunity to reflect on their own beliefs and examine the core values that guide their daily lives.

Register Here

Session 3: After College: Self Awareness as a Path to Leadership

Wednesday, October 16
12:00pm—1:00pm
Cape Charles Room, Webb Center
Nicole Kiger, Director of Leadership & Student Involvement | Beverly Forbes, Director of Experimental Education, Liaison to the Battan College of Engineering and Technology, Career Management Center | John Morris | Ship Yard Representative

Come learn from our panel of leaders what you can do while in college that will be marketable after graduation. Our panel will also inform you how best to package your resume to meet the needs of graduate school and/or potential employers.

Register Here

Session 6: Love is Blind: Uncovering the Blind Spots in Love

Wednesday, December 3
12:00pm-1:00pm
Cape Charles Rooms, Webb Center
Crista Gambrell, Ph.D, LPC, Professional Counselor/ Assistant Professor Office of Counseling Services

It's hard to deny that we are made for relationship. Regardless of the type of relationship, or how casual or intimate it is, we exist in relation to other people. Most of us have had relationships where we felt the other person just didn't get us. Despite our best intentions, the relationship was a challenge at best or a failure at worst. Through discussion, role play, and personal reflection activities participants will uncover their blind spots in love and create action steps for how to address them.

Register Here