

The Changing Security Environment and the Implications for Us All

Thursday, December 04
Burgess Room (BAL 9024)
12:15-1:30

Brigadier GEN Matthew L. Brand
United States Army
North Atlantic Treaty Organization

Brigadier General Brand is an expert on international security with a specific focus on Russia and Ukraine as well as Central Asia. He is fluent in Georgian, Ukrainian and Russian. General Brand is a graduate of the United States Military Academy. He has served in a variety of command and staff positions in the United States, Korea and the Middle East and is currently assigned as the Deputy Chief of Staff for Strategic Plans and Policy, Headquarters Supreme Allied Command Transformation, NATO. He served as United States Defense and Army Attaché in Uzbekistan, Kazakhstan, and Georgia.