

“Best Gay Car Movie of the Year”

-Vanity Fair

a documentary film by Erin Davies

Interested in documentary filmmaking?

Want to learn how to make your own documentary?

Want to know how to distribute your film on major platforms like Netflix and Hulu?

Come to a special meet and greet with Erin Davies the director and star of the independent documentary fagbug.

RSVP by emailing mfrench@odu.edu

SPACE IS LIMITED AND LUNCH WILL BE PROVIDED.

When: March 28th

Location: Dragas 2106

Time: 12:00-1:30

On the 11th Annual National Day of Silence, Erin Davies was victim to a hate crime in Albany, New York. Because of sporting a rainbow sticker on her VW Beetle, Erin's car was vandalized, left with the words "fag" and "u r gay" placed on the driver's side window and hood of her car. Despite initial shock and embarrassment, Erin decided to embrace what happened by leaving the graffiti on her car. She took her car, now known worldwide as the "fagbug," on a 58-day trip around the US and Canada. Along the way, Erin discovered other, more serious hate crimes, had people attempt to remove the graffiti, and experimented with having a male drive her car. After driving the fagbug for 1 year, Erin decided to give her car a makeover.

MORE INFORMATION: WWW.FAGBUG.COM

Questions? Contact
safespace@odu.edu

Sponsored by: Safe Space Committee, Office of Intercultural Relations, Counseling Center, Communication & Theatre Arts Department, English Department, Women's Center and ODU Gay Cultural Studies