CONFERENCE OVERVIEW

Since 1986, the Virginia ABC has sponsored the oldest running college conference on alcohol abuse prevention for college students in the country. College Tour is a series of regional conferences that focus on promoting healthy choices, social responsibility, collaboration and leadership.

This year's theme is "A Different Type of Buzz," advocating nonalcoholic methods of having fun on campus and in life.

What's the latest buzz? The College Tour provides:

- informative workshops, with separate tracks for students and professionals.
- opportunities for professional development, sharing resources and leadership development.
- networking with students and staff from local four-year and two-year colleges and universities.

REGISTRATION

- Students are FREE! Student participants must be a member of a student group or organization at their respective campus in order to attend College Tour.
- Professionals (campus administrators, staff, faculty and community advocates): $20
- Conference fee includes breakfast, lunch, snacks and all conference materials.
- Please use the attached registration form

QUESTIONS

Please contact the Virginia ABC Education and Prevention Section at 804-977-7440 or education@abc.virginia.gov.

Additional regional conferences are scheduled for fall 2014. Check out the buzz on Facebook @ vacollegetur.
