The Old Dominion University's Pre-Collegiate Summer Dance Intensive is a weeklong summer dance intensive for the focused and open-minded dance student.

Students work directly with ODU's internationally recognized and award-winning dance faculty in rigorous studio practices to build technique. Geared to studios, dance programs, their pre-collegiate high school students, and collegiate students transferring into the ODU dance program, this five-day intensive offers technique in Hip Hop, Ballet, Modern/ Contemporary, Jazz, Aerial Dance, Pilates and Yoga.

PROGRAM STRUCTURE

4 classes a day with a lunch in between. From 8am-3pm, morning and early afternoon classes take place in the new state of the art Diehn Dance Studios located in the Diehn Center for the Performing Arts.

TRAVEL, LODGING, & MEALS

Participants are responsible for their own transportation, lodging and meals. There are also restaurants on campus in WEBB Center.
