Old Dominion University

M.S.Ed. in Counseling and Ph.D. in Education with a concentration in Counseling

Outcomes Report

December 2022

M.S.Ed program

The Department of Counseling and Human Services at Old Dominion University hosts two CACREP-accredited tracks for the M.S.Ed. in Counseling, one in Clinical Mental Health Counseling and one in School Counseling. See table 1 below for a report of graduates by track for Spring 2022 semester. Across both tracks, there were approximately 25 graduates.

- For all graduates, the first-time pass rate for our Counseling Program Comprehensive Exam (CPCE) was 98%, and the first-time pass rate for takers of the National Counselor Exam was also 98%.
- Approximately 99% percent of accepted students graduate within a 3-year time period. Full-time students graduate in 7 semesters and part-time students graduate in 9 to 10 semesters.
- Based on response rates from alumni surveys, the job placement rate for clinical mental health counselor track graduates is approximately 96%, and the rate for school counselor track graduates is 99%.

Ph.D. Program

The Department of Counseling and Human Services also houses the Ph.D. in Education with a concentration in Counseling program, which is accredited by CACREP as a counselor education and supervision degree. There were 7 graduates in the 2021-2022 academic year including Winter and Spring commencements.

- Approximately 100% of students graduate within expected time periods, 3 years for full-time students and 4 to 5 years for part time students.
- Based on responses to alumni surveys, 95% of graduates find employment within a 2 year period after graduation.
