Innovations in Ukrainian-U.S. Veteran Cooperation
May 10, 2023 - Oracle Center - Arlington, VA
HillVets | CAPCON 8 | Cohort 8

Overview
Since 1930, the U.S. The Veterans Administration, then the Department of Veterans Affairs, handled a steady stream of health, benefits, and death issues from the Civil War to today’s contemporary conflicts. The VA is often supported with a network of state administrations, veterans service organizations, and other private ventures.

Meanwhile, Ukraine’s previous veteran’s population consisted of a small number mostly Soviet-era veterans from Afghanistan and WWII. Now, Ukraine faces a wave of up to 500,000 future Veterans as of 2021. Veterans and their family members may reach up to 5 million people after the end of the war. Ukraine is set to become a country of veterans.

While the war creates a huge demand, Ukraine can also innovate to “leap ahead” a generation in Veteran care and benefits. Iron-willed and tech savvy, Ukraine is reaching out to develop a 21st Century plan to “Empower the Strongest.” For example, Ukraine has already created innovative hybrid approaches such as the state organization Ukrainian Veterans Foundation, with private funding like capabilities. Under the governance of the Ministry of Veterans Affairs, this group provides analytics, startup financing, crisis intervention, and information campaigns. Veterans can pursue employment, education, and business opportunities that rapidly redevelop Ukraine inside of western norms.

This panel reviews the activities of Ukrainians accelerated approach to Veterans support and asks “where can we help?”. Whether as individual veterans or within the scope of future U.S. policy, from World War II to the Global War on Terror, what are the lessons learned that we can pass to our Ukrainian partners in arms?

At that time, the thesis committee chair signs the form indicating successful completion of the thesis, and the form is also signed by the Committee members.

Leave will be granted only under exceptional circumstances.

D9 – Advancement to Candidacy

The D9 form confirms the student has successfully completed all the requirements and meets the criteria for advancement to candidacy. This form should be signed by the student, the dissertation Chair, and the Graduate Program Director.
