Meal Plans are purchased and billed on a semester basis. Meals do not transfer from one semester to the next; however flex points carry over from the fall to spring semester with the purchase of a spring meal plan. Meal plan changes are only allowed during a limited time period at the beginning of each semester (please visit the Card Center at www.odu.edu/af/cardcenter for details). If a Resident moves off-campus, it is his/her responsibility to review the Cancellation portion of the Housing and Dining Agreement to determine eligibility to cancel the meal plan.

18. Laundry: Residential facilities are equipped with washers and dryers. Each resident automatically receives 30 loads (1 wash + 1 dry = 1 load) of laundry at the beginning of the fall and spring semester on his/her ODU Identification card. Unused loads carry over from fall to spring to summer semesters, but do expire on July 31. Additional laundry loads may be purchased with Monarch Plus through the Card Center (www.odu.edu/af/cardcenter), or students may pay for loads with coins. Residents may only sublet to current ODU students who are enrolled for Fall 2013. The Housing and Dining Agreement will remain with the original Resident, but Housing & Residence Life will permit another student to occupy that space. The original Resident is still financially responsible for the full bill as well as any damages that may occur. Subletting Agreements will be available beginning March 1, 2013 and are due May 1, 2013.

20. Living/Learning Communities and Special Interest Housing: Residents that indicate a preference to participate in a Living/Learning Community or Special Interest Housing are accepting the terms of participation in that community as well as any associated fees as published. Indicating a preference to participate in a particular community does not guarantee placement within that community.

21. Criminal Activity: It is a condition of eligibility for applicants for University-owned or managed housing to completely and truthfully answer criminal history activity questions. Housing and Residence Life reserves the right to refuse housing based upon behavior, including but not limited to criminal activity, that the University in its sole discretion and judgment determines that refusal of housing (or termination of the Housing and Dining Agreement for behavior that is revealed or occurs after application submission) is in the best interest of the University, its residents and employees, and the overall Housing and Residential Life community. If Housing and Residence Life becomes aware that an applicant has a record of criminal conviction(s) or other actions that could pose a risk to person or property and/or could be injurious or disruptive to the university-owned or managed community environment, the University may not accept or may cancel the Housing and Dining Agreement. Failure to completely and truthfully answer criminal history activity questions on a housing application may result in termination of the Housing and Dining Agreement and/or Old Dominion University disciplinary proceedings. All decisions/outcomes through this process are final and are not subject to review/appeal.

22. Termination by the University: This agreement may be terminated for disciplinary reasons by the University and/or Housing & Residence Life, including dismissal from the University. In a case of termination of this agreement by the University or Housing & Residence Life, the student will remain financially responsible for the entire cost of the agreement period for the assigned building. The University has the authority to deny or remove a student from on-campus housing where the presence or continued presence of a Resident in the residential communities poses a significant risk to the health or safety of the Resident or others. In making this assessment, the University reserves the right to consult with and refer the student to a mental and/or healthcare facility or provide for an evaluation.

23. Changes and Corrections: The University has made every reasonable attempt to make sure the information contained herein is accurate at time of publication. However, the University and Housing & Residence Life reserve the right to make corrections when necessary. Such changes may include, but are not limited to, location and availability of living & learning communities, certain special interest housing, changes in dining service hours, and location of break housing buildings. If changes are made, Housing & Residence Life will inform Residents of such changes through multiple means of communication and in a timely manner.

Note:

- A completed online application/agreement indicates that the applicant has read, understands, and agrees to the agreement policies outlined within the 2012-2013 Housing & Dining Agreement Terms and Conditions and the Housing & Residence Life Policies and Procedures Handbook.
- Students are responsible for completing the online application procedure. Should a parent complete the online application procedure for the student, the University will hold the student responsible for fulfilling all responsibilities of the agreement period.
